

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, November 27. 1718.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 3.

Venice, November 12.

WE hear by a Ship come in which touch'd at Corfu, that the Generalissimo would not depart so soon as was expected, because according to the Instructions of the Senate, he was to visit the Places and the Islands, regulate the Garrisons, and make a Reform of Part of the Foreign Troops; so that it is believ'd he will not return till Lent. Some Companies are arrived from thence at the Lido, and are put into the Lazaret to perform Quarantine, and those that have done it are embark'd upon the Adige to be conducted to Verona. Other Ships are arrived from Dalmatia, with many Passengers and Officers, among others, the Nobleman Georgio Balbi, who defended Singb with so much Valour when the Place was besieged by the Turks. Part of the German Troops who are going to Naples thro' the Ecclesiastical State, have pass'd by the Ferrarese, and others have taken the Road of Mantua. On the 8th, the Procurator Carlo Ruzini arrived here, and the 10th he went to the College, accompanied by a great Number of Noblemen, where he gave an Account of his Negotiation at the Treaty of Peace of Passarowitz. Some Regiments of German Horse who were in Quarters in the Milanese, have been oblig'd to extend themselves as far as the Oglio upon the Cremonese, by reason of the Scarcity of Forage, which they must fetch in from far, and they have great Difficulty in erecting Magazines, because the Price is excessive. They are at Work also in making new Carriages for the Artillery, and Ammunition Wagons, the greatest Part of more they brought with them being not in a Condition to be made use of.

Parma, Nov. 16. The Pope's Nuncio presses in vain for an Answer to the Letter he delivered from the Pretender, wherein he reclaims the Princess Sobieski, as his affianc'd Bride; and pretends to make her Arrest in Affair of Conscience. In the mean time, the Marriages of the two other Princesses Sobieski remain suspended, because the Prince of Modena, who was to have married the eldest of them, promis'd himself a great Estate from her Mother the Queen Dowager of Poland, which he now finds to be Chimerical, and to consist only of old Debts and Pretensions, which she had in France. And for the same Reason the Prince de Guastalla will not conclude his Marriage with the other Princess.

The Minister of the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, makes pressing Instances at this Court, to induce his Imperial Majesty to interpose his Authority with the Circles, who furnish'd the Troops for the Execution decreed against the Prince his Master, in order to cause them to retire out of his Territories; since the Evacuation of Rhin-fels has been done and accomplish'd by the said Landgrave.

London, November 27.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Naples, Nov. 8. The Master of a Pelucca arriv'd here Yesterday Morning with Dispatches from General Caraffa for the Viceroy, reports, that the Piemontese at Melazzo have received the Germans into the Castle, and have set up the Emperour's Standard, to the great Satisfaction of the Inhabitants. That the Spaniards before the Place are but a small Number, and that their Camp is all under Water, thro' the great Rains that have fallen; but that the Number of the Imperialists increases daily very considerably, by the frequent Debarkments of Troops that are made. Yesterday the Generals Zumjungen, Roma, and Arigoni, set out Post for Tropea, to pass to Sicily. The Spaniards having rais'd the Blockade of Syracusa, to reinforce their Camp near Melazzo, two of the Piemontese Regiments that were in Syracusa, are sent by Sea to reinforce Melazzo. 'Tis said a Convoy is arriv'd from Barcelona with Land Forces, which according to some Reports, went ashore at Palermo, or as others, at Messina.

From the Hague Courant, dated Dec. 2.

Naples, Nov. 8. On Tuesday last arriv'd from Sicily in the Haven of Baya Admiral Byng with some Men of War, two Palanders, and one Spanish Prize, together with two Fire-ships, a Victual-ler, and an Hospital-ship, to Carcen; having left a Squadron on the Coast of Sicily to cruise against the Enemy's Ships, and to convoy our Transports thither. On Wednesday the Admiral came ashore and was saluted by the Canon of the Forts; a Coach with six Horses received him, and carried him to the Viceroy's Palace; and in the Evening he was at the Opera: The Palace of the Duke de Matalona was in the mean time prepar'd, and he lay there. He is since sail'd to Pozzuolo, to winter there.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Leghorn, Nov. 11. The 22 Ships of the Convoy with Imperial Troops from Genoa, which put in here in the Storm, set Sail again last Saturday for Sicily, and the Wind having been fair ever since, we judge they are now arriv'd there.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Rononia, Nov. 13. The Pretender departed from hence by Post on Wednesday Morning, with a small Retinue, to go to Urbino, intending to remain there till he has certain Advice whether the Princess Sobieski will be released or not. But because some Regiments of Imperial Cossacks in their Way to Naples will pass near Urbino, he has been willing to put himself more out of their Reach, and is therefore gone to Castel-Gaidolfo.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Dec. 3.

Parma, Nov. 17. Our Court has sent Orders to their Minister residing at Vienna, to represent to the Imperial Court, that the two Imperial Regiments who are in the Territory of Parma, have already committed great Disorders, and seem to dispose themselves as if they intended to Winter there; he is therefore to desire that they may be remov'd. This is what may indeed be obtain'd, in case our Duke, and the Great Duke of Tuscany, will come into the Quadruple Alliance; but otherwise 'tis to be fear'd the Instances of that Minister will meet with but cold Reception at the Imperial Court.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated Dec. 2.

Vienna, Nov. 19. 'Tis confirm'd from Italy, that a great Number of Imperial Troops have pass'd into Sicily, and 'tis hoped that the Spaniards will be oblig'd to raise the Siege of Melazzo, altho' a Reinforcement are come to them of 5 or 6000 Men. Two Imperial Regiments have taken Quarters in the Parmasan. 'Tis said the States of the Lower Austria have resolv'd to grant the Emperour an Aid of a Million and half. The Landgrave of Hesse Rhin-fels who has been here for some time, is prepar'd to return to his own Dominions.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Dec. 3.

Vienna, Nov. 19. Besides the two Regiments that lye in the Parmasan, two more are upon the Road for Romagna, who will take Care that they have good Quarters there. The Pope's Nuncio has already complain'd of this, but the Disposition of that Affair is so far fix'd that he must be forc'd to take it in good Part. Our Court has receiv'd Letters by Express from Rome, which say, that Cardinal Albironi is not now so positive as he has been for pursuing the War, and that his Wings begin to flag, his King having, as those Letters say, sent to the Regent of France, to make his Peace with the Emperour, and the King of Great Britain.
